Taipei's Night Market culture is world-renowned, and through this deck, we aim to share the charm of the night markets with people around the globe. The illustrations are created by renowned artists. Whether you're a food culture enthusiast or a playing card aficionado, you definitely don't want to miss out on this deck of playing cards!

BPCC's newly developed holographic printing technology allows the cards to exhibit different color effects under various lighting angles, while further enhancing the smoothness of the cards. The embossed edge-locking process ensures perfect shuffling and handling.
