

The Little Pocket Policy by Deuce Gala Magic

The Little Pocket Policy isn't just a trick, it's a flexible tool for comedy and storytelling! It lets you entertain your audience while subtly showcasing your creativity and skill.

Humorous and highly visual, this pocket-sized effect creates all sorts of opportunities for jokes and witty banter - taking your spectators on an emotional journey filled with laughter, confusion, worry, and finally, relief!

Compact and practical (1.5" x 3.5" when folded), it fits easily into nearly any pocket or wallet.

You can reveal up to three cards in a single performance, including the charming Mystery Card - a small prop that always steals the spotlight!

Professionally printed on textured paper with a pebbled finish for an authentic look and feel, the Little Pocket Policy is a joyful experience for both you and your audience!

Effect

A spectator selects a card and loses it back into the deck. You try to find it several times, but your efforts hilariously miss the mark. Things aren't going so well - until you remember your magician's insurance policy!

What follows is a series of comedic moments as you reveal that you actually knew their card all along. By the end, the audience is left laughing, impressed, and thoroughly entertained.

What Makes Deuce Gala's Policy Unique?

The Magician's Insurance Policy, first popularized by George "Mandroop" McAthys, has delighted audiences for over 50 years. It has appeared in various sizes, such as posters, flyers, credit cards, and more.

What sets DG's policy apart is its modular design, offering unique flexibility in your performance. You can mix and match how you present, fail, and ultimately reveal the chosen card.

With the ability to reveal up to three cards in one performance, including the ever-intriguing Mystery Card, you'll have endless creative possibilities at your fingertips.

Plus, the in-depth video instructions don't just teach the method; they dive into the structure and reasoning behind it. You'll learn the three-phase foundation that supports any presentation style, while also learning how to tailor the routine to suit your unique approach.

With DG's policy, you're not just performing a trick, you're creating an experience that's truly your own.
