

Color Changing Flower

The magician steps onto the stage holding an elegant pink flower. He takes a decorated tube and passes the flower through it freely... nothing happens. The second time, as he passes the flower through again, it incredibly changes color to blue. Once more, the flower is passed through the tube and this time it changes from blue to white!

A true delight for the eyes.