

At the Circus Gag Bag by Lee Alex

Roll up, roll up! The greatest show on earth!

Come and experience the talents of our amazing performers!

The outside of the bag shows the circus tent where the circus performers entertain their audience. Lots of fun and audience participation as the spectators are encouraged to guess which performer will appear next in the show.

The magician announces that the clown has gone missing from the circus, and it is his job to find it with the help of his audience. The children see a picture of the clown when the bag is turned inside out, however the magician fails to see it. More and more performers are shown, a different one each time, but the magician never sees the clown. In the end the magician looks inside the bag and this time the audience sees a silhouette of the clown - the comical clown has disappeared! Always playing jokes on his fellow performers!

The magician turns around and the clown is seen attached to his back. Alternatively, the 2D cut out clown (included) can be found on a spectator's back, or anywhere else you wish.
