

Comedy Mummy by Mago Flash

Comedy Mummy

is a new version of a classic clatter box. this time not only with a new image of a sarcophagus and a mummy inside. It also has a new automatic system where the image of the mummy quickly changes from bandaged to underwear and the incredible thing is that all this happens in the viewer's hand.

The classic clatter box had the problem that the joke where the box breaks completely is greater than the magic, for this reason the magic took a backseat. In this new version this does not happen. since in addition to the GAG of the broken box there is also another GAG of the mummy in underwear.

After a pause of oblivion where everything went wrong, the magical moment really arrives when the magician slowly stretches the mummy's bandage that reaches to the ground and at the tip of the bandage there is finally a card chosen by the audience. Finally the entire audience is surprised.

Comedy Mummy includes a routine already assembled and ready to be presented with 2 gags and a very original magical effect that no one expects. It's special for comedy magic, card magic, children's magic, parlor magic.