

Magic At The Movies by Phil Shaw

Imagine being able to ask a spectator to think of one of five famous Hollywood film stars featured on the supplied cards, and without them saying a word you instantly tell them which actor they are thinking of. The spectator never takes or touches their selection they merely think of the person.

- No force
- Easy to do
- Instantly repeatable

The cards are professional printed and can be used for other effects given a little thought.