

Interruptour by Marc Céliandre & Damien Vappereau

Under the direction of Marc Céliandre & Damien Vappereau, Interruptour rises as a luminous masterpiece, a bridge between dream and reality.

This enigmatic concept reimagines that magical instant: how does one light a bulb? With a breath, a quiver, a fleeting thought... and the light bursts forth, dancing through mysterious transformations.

Each hue tells a story of emotion, an illusion unfolding before the dazzled eyes of the audience.

Far from a mere magic trick, Interruptour is an experience, a living poem where light becomes language and the invisible takes shape.

An invitation to suspend time, to delve into the imagination, and to rediscover wonder.
