

Just Chance - Bühnentrick

A classic of mentalism – easy to perform, impossible to forget.

You display six closed envelopes. Only one hides a €100 prize, the others are empty. The spectators freely choose five envelopes... but find nothing. The winning envelope is always the one you keep.

A simple effect, but incredibly powerful and with an emotional impact. Rising suspense, full audience involvement, and a finale that leaves everyone speechless.

Easy to perform: no sleight of hand, no complicated secret techniques.

- High impact: emotion, surprise, and tension packed into just a few minutes.
- Engaging: the spectators become the true stars of the show.
- Always ready: instant reset, perfect for close-up, parlor, or stage.
- A modern classic: elegant, clean, and unbelievably effective.
