

No F*ing Way! by Vincenzo Di Fatta

Two choices. One incredible coincidence!

A spectator freely selects a card, but doesn't look at it. The card is immediately placed into a small envelope, closed and untouched. No one knows what the card is.

Then, a second spectator joins in. A second deck is introduced.

Another card is freely selected. This time, the card is shown... and the audience holds its breath.

The magician opens the envelope.

Amazingly, it's the exact same card.

- Easy to perform
- Direct and clean
- Emotionally powerful
- Perfect for close-up and parlor: simple, strong, unforgettable.

The decks of cards are not included, but since they are standard, you can use your own!
