

Tattoo Tales by Nikolas Mavresis

Step into the wild world of tattoo roulette! Imagine you are in Las Vegas, entering a tattoo shop with your best friends or new spouse, only to be handed a deck of tattoo cards. The catch? Whatever design you randomly pick, you're stuck with it! No takebacks, no second chances!

Tattoo Tales is bold and delivers a hilarious routine with an unexpected ending that will leave your spectators laughing, (probably) shocked, and talking about it long after the performance ends.
