

Invisible Snow by Bond Lee and MS Magic

Produced by Bond Lee, Stephen Chan & MS Magic

Introducing "Invisible Snow," the ultimate snow device for magicians! Seamlessly concealable, this revolutionary product allows you to conjure a blizzard of snowstorm from empty hands, creating a magical and enchanting visual spectacle.

One of the standout features of the "Invisible Snow" is its adaptable design. It can transform its shape to fit various settings, whether concealed on body, nestled inside a hat, or placed within a performance box, making it suitable for a wide range of magic shows.

You can also adjust the air volume according to the needs of your performance. At its highest setting, it can propel snowflake up to a height of six to ten meters, ensuring a captivating display that will leave audiences spellbound.

Equipped with both touch and remote-control options, the "Invisible Snow" offers unparalleled convenience and flexibility, allowing you to trigger the snowfall with ease.

Crafted from durable ABS material, the main body is built to withstand the rigors of frequent use. Coupled with a high-quality, high-capacity battery, it guarantees consistent and reliable performance, so you can focus on delivering a flawless magic show every time.

Elevate your magic tricks to new heights and bring a touch of winter wonderland to your performances. This is the Invisible Snow.
