

Prestige by Matthew Wright and Craig Petty

Start your engines and hit the fast lane as Craig Petty and Matthew Wright join forces to bring you an eye-popping, sleight-free, EDC close-up magic trick that will make you look like a professional prestidigitator but without all the years of knuckle-busting hard labor usually needed.

Fast track your skills and cruise into the big time as you seamlessly change your standard car key fob into a dream machine of status and luxury using the special props included with Prestige.

These custom-built gimmicks will drive your audience crazy as your key fobs invisibly jump from hand to hand at top speed. They can switch and duplicate in fully automatic mode before arriving at your final destination with a turbo injected supercar finish that nobody will see coming.

- Includes custom built key fobs that allow you to easily perform multiple changes.
- 40-minute instructional download.
