

Chinese Boxes Set

A spectator is asked to sign a coin and put it inside a small case that is then sealed with some elastic bands. A hanky is also wrapped around the case, and then everything is handed to the spectator to hold. After a magical gesture the spectator himself unwraps the hanky and finds that coin has completely vanished. Incredibly the signed coin reappears inside the smallest box of a nest of four closed boxes!