

FULTONS WITCHING HOUR PLAYING CARDS

Legendary skateboard artist Todd Bratrud created these epic playing cards for Fulton based on a longtime dream and title that rattled around in his head until he found the right artist to bring this to life. The result is shocking.

Everything you ever wanted in a Halloween themed deck of cards. It's The Witching Hour-where anything goes according to our Halloween Queen.

Completely custom from the pips to the court cards...not to mention this tuck box oozing with style and an unknown magenta substance. Features deep embossing and spot-gloss elements for that extra pop!
