

The Mysterious Key

The magician displays two keys on the palm of his hand, then asks a spectator to choose one. The spectator makes a selection, leaving only one key.

The magician then picks it up and begins to gently stroke it. Slowly, the key starts to bend more and more until it forms a right angle.

Finally, it is handed over for examination.

- Simple, pocket-sized, and impactful!