PITATA Prophet's Billet: Silent, Self-Working Prediction

Reveal their freely chosen thought in this seemingly impossible way.

Enjoy the trailer here to see this unique approach to open predictions that does all the work for you.

What It Does

Imagine this: You remove a billet and write your prediction in plain sight, and place it on the table, under a deck of cards. You then invite a spectator on an imaginary journey, offering them five distinct destinations. There is no force, no fishing. The choice is completely free.

With a wave of your hand, you invite them to take the billet from beneath the deck, written on it, in your handwriting, is their exact choice.

Unlike most prediction effects, the PITATA Prophet's Billet is a feat of technological magic that happens right under their noses, without any suspicious moves.

Key Features

Truly Free Choice: The spectator is given multiple, clear options and makes a genuine, unforced decision.

The Billet is Examined After: The billet can be handed out as a souvenir after the miracle has happened.

Completely Self-Working: The gimmick does all the work behind the scenes. This allows you to focus on your presentation and the spectator's reaction, not on a complex secret sleight or move.

Create predictions for any scenario - ESP symbols, names, numbers, or destinations. You can pre-write a set of cards with multiple themes and outcomes.

Perform Anywhere, Anytime: A complete, portable miracle system that fits in your pocket.
