

Splash Finale

Welcome to Splash Finale!

A new ending for a legendary classic!

The classic 'water disappearance' has been a staple in magic for decades. Splash Finale takes this effect to a whole new level: after the water disappears, you turn the glass upside down and an explosion of paper and confetti shoots into the air.

This ingenious trick can be adapted to almost any glass and is ready in minutes. It is easy to use, reliable, and visually stunning. Splash Finale is the perfect way to end your routine with an explosive, high-impact moment that your audience will never forget.

Does not include: freezing powder