

Crystal Clear by Bob Kohler & Chris Rawlins

Crystal Clear

is the first collaboration between Bob Kohler and Chris Rawlins. Many more incredible, new products are on the way! This partnership combines professional routines from Bob Kohler's working repertoire with power, precision and performances of Chris Rawlins. It's a new beginning for Bob Kohler Magic!

Crystal Clear is a new benchmark for an even higher standard of quality you can expect from this partnership. The power of new manufacturing, packaging and delivery hubs in both the USA and UK will provide you with better service and state of the art products!

Crystal Clear is the brainchild of Bob Kohler. It's his adaptation of the classic "Blister Trick" created by Jack Kent Tiller. Bob has been performing his own various versions of this routine since 1986. Crystal Clear has proven its effectiveness and power as a pro level routine by thousands of performances.

Crystal Clear is the true ending this routine has always needed. Crystal Clear provides you consistently with the most realistic blister possible.

Over the years, Crystal Clear has gone through many incarnations and upgrades. This is the definitive and perfect solution. Read on to find out why this is the absolute best version of this classic effect ever created!

Totally Safe

All great effects have an emotional hook. It's the hook that makes the audience watch. The hook for Crystal Clear is danger, apparently real danger. However Crystal Clear is totally safe and easy to perform. You are in complete control!

Crystal Clear is incredibly convincing. To the audience, the danger is imminent and the blister is real! The "accident" that caused the blister is totally believable! The miracle of healing is completely convincing! Why, because the audience can actually see the blister heal right before their eyes.

The truth is there is absolutely no danger to the performer at all. Safety is our #1 concern.

Crystal Clear is cleverly designed to do the dirty work for you and eliminate any possibly of injury. Follow our simple instructions and soon you will master physic healing!

Crystal Clear Gimmick

Past incarnations of the Blister Trick have used a variety of methods to create the "Blister." The problem is many of the previous solutions created a blister that is less than believable. A second issue is how long does the blister last? These problems have been solved.

After years of experimentation and performance Bob has created the perfect gimmick. It creates the optimum size and shape of the blister to completely convince the most skeptical audience that the blister is real. Perhaps just as important is that the blister stays perfect as long as possible. The new gimmicks take care of this by creating a perfect seal on your finger to slow down the degradation of blister. The last improvements are the construction of the gimmick. The material is clear so it's close to invisible, it's flexible so it can be located on either a curved or flat surface. Each of the three gimmicks comes with a self-adhesive that guarantees it will stay where you placed it. It creates the perfect blister when installed on either curved or flat surfaces!

The Perfect Crystal - I have spent the years searching for the "Perfect Crystal". Natural Crystals grown by nature in underground caves look fantastic but the issue is the clarity and size. I found one that was perfect. It took me a very long time to locate this gem. I've used for over 30 years with incredible success.

Crystal Clear comes with a man-made crystal that looks completely natural. Manufactured to our specifications. We produce the crystal with minor inclusions and flaws inside so spectators will conclude it's real!

The Crystal is well protected by a custom designed leather case!

The clarity of the crystal is what allows the spectators to see the blister heal. To insure this the size of the crystal is extremely important. Every crystal we make is unique but the dimensions are exactly the same. I designed the crystal to be large enough for the stunning, visual healing but still small enough to easily fit in your pocket.

The length is 3.5" (9cm). The crystal is pointed with six panels. The width of each panel is a half inch wide (1.5cm).

This allows incredible viewing through the crystal of the healing!

The crystal comes in a custom designed fine leather carrying case to guarantee decades of service! Crystal Clear will save you the years of searching I went through...

Multiple Performances & Routines

My partner on this project is the amazing Chris Rawlins. He is a fantastic professional magician/ mentalist based in England. Chris performs all of the routines for live audiences for both the training and in the trailer for Crystal Clear.

His performances will prove to you that Crystal Clear is extremely versatile. It can be performed strolling, in formal shows or on Instagram.

Your presentations can be adapted from Magic to Mentalism to the Bizarre! Crystal Clear is practical, powerful, and angle-proof. The reactions are both shock and amazement as the healing sequence is as close to real as you can get!

Video Training - The Crystal Clear video training is delivered by download. Inside Crystal Clear you'll find both a QR Code and a URL link and password to acquire the video training.

The video was captured in 4K quality and delivered in HD 1080P. The training is 56 minutes in length. You can download different resolutions as needed for your devices.

The Inner Secrets of Crystal Clear are covered in incredible detail you've come to expect from Bob Kohler Magic with multiple performances and complete explanations of every facet of Crystal Clear!
