

Bicycle Mascot (Tiger Sniffs the Rose) - Pokerdeck

In the long river of Chinese culture, auspicious beasts are like brilliant stars, some majestic and powerful, some lively and graceful, and some mysterious and unfathomable. They contain beautiful implications and carry people's yearning for happiness and success. Nowadays, the auspicious beast, carrying beautiful wishes, transcends time and space, transforming into a vigorous and agile horse in shadow puppetry, and jointly writing a new legend with BICYCLE.

Intangible cultural Heritage shadow puppetry – Oriental Auspicious Beasts = A new Height of Chinese Romance BICYCLE Auspicious Beast Series Cards take the traditional Chinese intangible cultural heritage art of "shadow puppetry" as the visual theme, presenting the five divine beasts - PI Xiu, Ao Yu, Bai Hu, Bai Ze, and Kunpeng - in the form of silhouettes. With fine lines and clear textures, it is mysterious and lively. Each card is a "shadow puppet animation" of traditional culture, and each deck of cards is like a flowing Oriental paper-cutting drama.

Bicycle Mascot (Tiger Sniffs the Rose)

The majestic white tiger also has a gentle side when it smells the rose. Just like love, beauty and tenacity coexist. Let love be as beautiful and long-lasting as a rose.