

Divisa by Adrian Vega

Introducing "Divisa" by Adrian Vega: A New Organic Multi-Tool for Close-Up Magic and Card Magic!

Adrian Vega, one of the most prominent creators and magicians on the international scene (as seen on Fool Us, FISM Europe, and the prestigious FFFF Convention), presents his innovative creation.

Divisa is an invisible multi-tool that will change the way you perform close-up magic and card magic. Its organic design allows it to integrate perfectly into your performance, hidden in plain sight, enabling you to perform spectacular tricks with total naturalness. This tool is the perfect solution for executing stunning effects with minimal effort, allowing Divisa to do the heavy lifting for you.

With Divisa, you can:

- Steal or add cards to a shuffled deck:
Divisa allows you to steal or add cards to a shuffled deck without any visible manipulation, making what seemed like a complicated trick incredibly easy to execute. A true marvel that will leave your audience speechless!
- Perform the classic "Card to Wallet" or an impossible transposition effect, without manual work:
With Divisa, you can make a card appear in your wallet or another location in a stunning manner, with no complicated manipulation. Divisa does all the work for you, allowing you to focus on presentation and visual impact.
- Imaging taking a "mystery card" from the beginning in full view and with a natural movement, you have already changed for any card (signed card, thought card, etc...), just watch it on the trailer and enjoy how visual and INVISIBLE it is.
- Transform a bill into a card: Imagine turning a bill into a card, even a signed card from the spectator. The change is so clean, visual, and natural that you will leave your audience completely stunned. The best part is that you can use a card that the spectator has previously signed, making it the perfect climax for a longer routine or a direct effect.

The tool is completely invisible when integrated into your performance. The audience will have no idea it's there, making the trick even more impressive. Divisa has been designed so that magicians of all levels can use it effortlessly. You don't need to be an expert in manipulation to perform spectacular effects. With practice, you'll master the tool quickly and start astonishing your audience in no time.

The package includes everything you need to get started with Divisa, just supply your own currency and in 5 minutes you can start performing impactful magic right away. All the routines are explained in a full tutorial from Adrian Vega, but with Divisa you can create your own ideas, routines and will open a new possibilities. Once you have it in your hands, magic will truly be yours!
