

Travel Test by David Jonathan and Nikolas Mavresis

From the creative minds of David Jonathan and Nikolas Mavresis comes Travel Test - a sleek, modern approach to the classic book test with an unforgettable twist!

Here's what happens:

Phase 1:

You mention you're planning a trip across Europe as you bring out a slim wallet containing a travel tips article torn from a magazine and an accompanying travel gift card. The spectator browses the article and freely thinks of any challenging word. Using classic mentalism principles, you are able to reveal their thought of word with uncanny accuracy!

Phase 2:

Where most book tests end... Travel Test is just taking flight! As a jaw-dropping kicker, you prove their choice was not random and they were influenced to think of that very word... and the proof is revealed to have been hiding in plain sight the entire time! It's a stunning display of influence, wrapped up in innocent and authentic props. No bulky books to carry around, no convoluted process - just compact, powerful mentalism that fits in your pocket. Whether you are a working professional or a passionate hobbyist, Travel Test is your boarding pass to miracles!

Insights for Performers:

- They can freely think of nearly a dozen different words from the article, which you can reveal using classic mentalism techniques enhanced with clever new subtleties.
- Every outcome can effortlessly be revealed as proof of influence, hidden in plain sight thanks to a clever no memorization revelation system built into the props.
- You will learn multiple techniques to obtain their thought of word; from no-memory options, to written and verbal revelations, and even multiple progressive anagrams! There are versatile solutions tailored for both beginners and seasoned mentalists alike.

You will receive three magazine pages (two spares), two premium quality plastic NFC enabled gift cards, a special slim wallet, over 1 hour of detailed video instructions and live performances, a PDF and an online training tool.
