

The Recurring by Dead Rebel

Welcome to The Recurring - a chilling, story-driven experience where your audience steps into a world ruled by unseen forces.

Hosted by the enigmatic Madame Orlaine, three simple games are played - yet no matter the choices made, the outcome is eerily inevitable.

The Recurring blurs the line between performance and fate. Every decision feels free, every path seems open... but the end has already been written.

No complex setups. Just story, theatre, and the unforgettable sense of a night that cannot be escaped.

Perfect for parlor, intimate stage, and theatrical settings, The Recurring offers a deeply emotional experience that lingers long after the final choice is made.

Includes full video tutorial, plus the handcrafted wooden box (with felt lining), the poker chips in the soft leather case, custom printed game cards in black box, photo, prediction letter and the envelopes with wax seals and the flower, all ready to perform immediately!
