

The Painting by Nikolas Mavresis

THE PAINTING

is a surreal, playful moment of magic where a blank canvas suddenly transforms into a vivid image - their chosen card, a number, a color, or even a whimsical twist featuring the Mona Lisa revealing their selection. A visual change that feels impossible, organic, and unforgettable.

You receive a set of gimmicked cards and full video instructions. Works with any USPCC deck.

KEY POINTS:

- An empty canvas paints itself into the spectator's chosen card, number, position, or color.
- The Mona Lisa magically reveals the spectator's card.
- The spectator makes the magic happen - you simply guide the moment. â€ç Super easy to do.
- A perfect blend of art, mystery, and mentalism in one compact routine.
