

The Asura Collector Box Set - Pokerdeck

The Asura Collector Box Set is a premium playing card collection inspired by the Six Realms of Samsara, a concept from Hindu and Buddhist mythology representing the cycle of rebirth. Each realm symbolizes a different state of existence shaped by karma, and this theme forms the visual narrative across the artwork of the collector box.

The collector box features black and gold foil stamping with deep 3D embossing, presenting a continuous illustration of the Six Realms. The base of the box is designed to display all four decks, making it both a storage piece and a showcase for collectors.
