Introducing Appearing 8 foot Tootsie Roll Pole by Big Guys Magic

(The magician, with a playful grin, steps forward, holding a simple paper bag. He reaches in and pulls out a handful of regular-sized Tootsie Rolls, tossing them out to the eager audience.)

"Who loves Tootsie Rolls?"

(He calls out, beaming, as more Tootsie Rolls fly into the crowd, landing in outstretched hands and laps.

He looks around, enjoying the excitement, then pulls out another handful, showering the audience with the chewy treats.)

"You know, I just absolutely love Tootsie Rolls! Every single one of them!"

(He exclaims, his eyes twinkling, as he looks down at the seemingly empty bag, then feigns disappointment.)

(He pauses, then his eyes light up.) "Wait a second... there's one way at the bottom!"

(With a dramatic flourish, he plunges his hand deep into the bag and, to the audience's astonishment, begins to pull out an enormous, 8-foot-long Tootsie Roll, seemingly endless as it emerges from the small paper bag!)

"At Big Guy's Magic, we personally make every single pole right here in the USA. We spare no expense, using only the highest quality vinyl and materials available to create each one."
