

Color Changing Plumes to Bouquet

A rod with three white plumes comes to life in the magician's hands: just touch it with a red silk and the first plume instantly turns red. Then a yellow silk is used... and the second plume magically becomes yellow. Finally, a blue silk is passed over the last plume... and it too transforms, turning blue!

When the now colorful rod is inserted into the magic wand, the impossible happens: instead of three plumes, a surprising multicolored bouquet emerges, leaving the audience breathless!

- Perfect for children's shows.
- Easy to perform and highly visual.
- Comes complete with everything you need, including 3 silks.