

Bicycle - Gino The Croco

Gino the Croco – The Playing Cards That Stand Out!

Discover Gino the Croco, the first mascot in a brand-new collection of premium playing cards. Designed to captivate at first glance, this deck breaks with the classic simplicity of Bicycle Standards while maintaining their legendary reliability. The perfect marriage of timeless USPCC elegance and Gino's mischievous grin creates a tool that is discreet, robust, and incredibly enigmatic.

For magicians, Gino is more than just an illustration: he's a true silent accomplice. His clever design and exceptional storytelling potential make him the ideal ally for diverting attention and making a lasting impression during your close-up or micro-magic routines.

Collectors, meanwhile, will immediately recognize Gino the Croco as the starting point of a collector's saga. This first installment launches a line of charismatic animals whose silhouettes are already taking shape in the shadows... Owning Gino means holding the key to a future absolute benchmark in the world of personalized playing cards.
