

Balloons by Rodrigo Lima and Luiz Paulo Oliveira

Do you believe a magician can read a child's mind?

In this incredible children's mentalism act, I present "BALLOONS," a book full of drawings of the world's most "difficult" balloon animal sculptures: puppy, snake, crab, monkey, and much more!

How does it work?

A child chooses any page from the book.

They simply visualize the figure they found.

Without anyone saying anything, I reveal that I already knew the choice, but the choice isn't the same, so I transform that balloon into the chosen animal!

A playful, intriguing experience that leaves the little ones (and adults) speechless, and the balloon can be given as a souvenir to the child.

Highlights

Total Interactivity: The children are the protagonists.

Colorful Visual: The picture book holds attention from beginning to end.

The Funny Grand Finale: An impossible prediction, but with an error by the magician, which he corrects in front of everyone!
