

FULTONS CASINO LOS ANGELES PLAYING CARDS

Few know that Fulton's Casino Empire had expanded to the City of Angels (Angles?) by the early 1990s. These playing cards were the house deck--used at every table during the entire final decade of the past century. Complete with long tuck flaps, and a color palette suitable for Melrose Place...these will be your new go-to card deck.

The owl--a hallmark of all Fulton's Establishments--is in full swing here and neatly integrated into this world of fun.

Brown tuck box on custom European paper.

Deep gold foil embossed on box exterior.

Pantone colors flood each millimeter of this instant vintage deck.
