

4D Cards by Tora Magic

The magician displays a sign featuring a black-and-white image of a deck of cards. A moment later, a real black-and-white card case comes to life from the picture and appears right out of the sign, leaving behind a blank white rectangle where the printed image used to be. For the big finale, the case changes color right before the audience's eyes, turning red, and a red-backed deck is pulled from inside!

- Manufactured and designed by Tora Magic Company.

Everything needed is included, including the card case (regular Bicycle cards are not included)
