

Color Betrayal (Red Court Card) by Long Long & Bacon Magic

Playing cards are a magician's closest partners-flexible, elegant, and full of possibilities. "Color Betrayal - One of a Kind", created by LongLong and produced by Bacon Magic, offers a powerful twist on the classic "card match" effect.

Effect

Borrow a spectator's deck and let them freely choose a card. You then reveal the matching card from another deck - and when the deck is turned over, that card's back is the only one that's different.

Features

- Clever, streamlined gimmick
- Easy setup with any Bicycle-size deck
- Performable with a borrowed deck
- Casual, hands-off handling with no-sleight options
- Includes clear, detailed video instruction by LongLong
