

Larvel Whiteboard - Impression - Bühnentrick

The Ultimate Device for Gaining Information

Imagine knowing exactly what the spectator is writing or drawing at the very moment they do it.

Impression Board is a powerful electronic board that secretly captures and transmits everything written on its surface directly to the performer through the Larvel app. Whether it's a word, a drawing, a number, a name, or a thought-of symbol, the information is received instantly and discreetly, allowing you to perform incredible mind reading demonstrations with complete confidence.

Why Performers Love Impression Board

- Natural-looking and completely innocent in appearance.
- Instant transmission of information.
- Perfect for close-up, parlor, stage, and corporate events.
- No suspicious moves or unnatural handling.
- A powerful and completely self-contained system.
- With Impression Board, the spectator writes or draws in a completely natural way, while you receive exactly the information you need to create astonishing revelations, impossible predictions, perfect duplications, and highly impactful mind reading effects.

A Complete and Standalone Tool

Impression Board is designed to be a complete and self-sufficient solution.

The spectator writes.

You receive the information.

The miracle begins.

Its versatility makes it one of the most valuable tools in any modern mentalist's arsenal, opening the door to countless routines and presentations.

Even More Powerful with Peek Board

While Impression Board is a complete and fully functional device on its own, it becomes even more remarkable when paired with Peek Board.

Together, they create an integrated and perfectly synchronized information management system.

Anything written or drawn on Impression Board can be automatically displayed on Peek Board, allowing the performer to get the peek directly from the board itself without ever having to look at the phone.

- The Perfect Combination
- The spectator writes on Impression Board.
- The information is captured instantly.
- The content automatically appears on Peek Board.
- The performer gets a natural and perfectly timed peek.
- The result is a cleaner, more deceptive, and more professional performance experience, capable of giving the audience the feeling that they are witnessing genuine mind reading.
