A Grid of Numbers. A Free Choice. A Perfect Prediction!

Your Audience Volunteer makes a completely free and random choice... yet the prediction is already waiting. Within this field of numbers lies a woven grid of fate.

At the heart of the system is a walnut display board, inscribed with a 16×16 numerical matrix. 256 numbers that seem completely random.

Your spectator chooses one of several transparent acrylic blocks, slides it anywhere across the grid, and stops on a spot that feels right to them.

No force. No restrictions.

Yet your prediction matches perfectly.

Each acrylic block subtly magnifies the numbers beneath it, framing the chosen area with elegant gold lines, offering both strong visual aesthetics and great handling freedom. It is easy to perform, yet powerful.

Beyond the four main prediction outcomes, the matrix also allows for additional variations and expanded effects.

Key Features:

- Truly free spectator choice - no force.
- 256 numbers and multiple prediction outcomes.
- Multiple acrylic frame sizes allow varied outcomes and multiple routines.
- Walnut board with gold-printed matrix.
