

Silk to Egg Stickers (Purple) Pack of 70

Take your Silk to Egg routine to the next level with the most realistic stickers we've ever seen.

For years, one thing has always bothered me about this classic effect.

After such a beautiful and deceptive routine, performers often finish by removing a plain red sticker that never actually looked like a hole. It works... but it never looked convincing.

I wanted to change that.

Silk to Egg Stickers have been professionally designed to look like a genuine hole in the egg, complete with the silk visibly tucked inside.

The result is an incredibly realistic finish that enhances the illusion right up to the very moment you peel the sticker away for the killer ending.

Printed on premium vinyl, these aren't throwaway stickers. Each one can be carefully removed and reused time and time again, making them perfect for working professionals and hobbyists alike.

Whether you're performing close-up, parlor or stage, these stickers add a level of realism that the classic routine has always deserved.

It's a small detail that makes a surprisingly big difference. When every moment of your performance matters, don't let a plain sticker weaken the illusion.
