

My Hamburger

A small packet trick with a big payoff. Four cards, each showing a component of a hamburger - the meat, the cheese, the pickles, and the bun - are shown one by one. Then, one at a time, they vanish... only to reunite on a single card revealing one giant, mouth-watering hamburger.

Visual, easy to handle, and packed with "wait, how?" appeal - a perfect closer or a fun way to open your set with a smile.

The cards are printed on Bicycle Rider Back (red), and come in a deluxe card case with a secret pocket.
