

Professional's Magic Wand (Ebony/Silver Tip) by Murphy's Magic

Crafted for the discerning performer, the Professional's Wand embodies balance, elegance, and precision.

Each wand features a hand-waxed and polished ebony central column, accented with striking silver tips that create a timeless, refined aesthetic.

Carefully engineered for optimal performance, every detail from length and diameter to weight distribution has been thoughtfully selected to ensure effortless handling, smooth spins, and controlled stick vanishes.

The result is a wand that feels as natural in motion as it does distinguished at rest. Equally suited for close-up or stage, this is a piece designed not just to perform, but to elevate the presence of every routine. Each wand is presented in a soft velvet drawstring pouch for protection and transport, and includes a cleaning cloth to maintain its polished finish over time.
