The Product

Looks like a joke. Works like a plot twist.

Stop playing with fruit. Start doing magic.

Banana Cadabra is a professional set of hyper-realistic bananas made of high-density memory foam: born for close-up, built for parlor and stage.

Precise grip, instant shape recovery, consistent response even during the fastest sleights. Each banana is calibrated to pull off the effect, not just to look the part.

Appearances, multiplications, impossible climaxes: they take shape effortlessly, leaving room for just one thing-the audience's reaction.

An ordinary piece of fruit, on the surface. Devastating, on stage.

Why It Works

Laughter lowers their guard. That's when the magic hits.

When they laugh, they don't see the magic coming. It's in that exact moment that their defenses drop and the impossible sneaks in unnoticed. Surprise becomes inevitable, the moment stays burnt in their memory.

It doesn't brown, it doesn't stain, it never betrays you. It never expires. Banana Cadabra works. Even on an empty stomach.
