Here's another treat for your audiences! Ron Bauer has just released #22 in his Private Studies series, "Jim Bergstrom's Hat Trick." It's an innovative, colorful comedy version of the Torn Tissue Papers to Hat that's a worthy feature effect for any close-up and stand-up adult audience. (It's not a kids' trick, but it is PG.)

Your audiences will be flummoxed in the best way by this action-packed frenzy of bits and pieces of colorful tissue flying in all directions leaving behind a lady's hat in a stunning five-color floral décor and set off with BERGSTROM'S BOUNTIFUL BLOSSOM. The Hat Trick is now available with detailed instructions and a complete, annotated performance script. You get all the gags and bits of business Jim has used in thousands of shows for first class audiences from Grosse Pointe to Chicago to Hollywood.
