

Visual Feathers - Bouquet of Flowers

The magician shows the audience two feather dusters, one red and one yellow, along with two hankies in the same colors.

He strokes the yellow duster with the red scarf, and it instantly transforms into a bouquet of red flowers. To finish, he strokes the red duster with the yellow scarf, and it transforms into a bouquet of yellow flowers!

The transformation is immediate, visual, and highly theatrical!

- Easy to perform, so you can focus on your presentation.
- If you prefer, the effect can also be performed without the included hankies, simply by stroking the dusters with your hands.
