

THE TEXAS CHAINSAW MASSACRE™ PLAYING CARDS

On August 18th 1973 a horrific series of gruesome killings took place in the Texas Countryside. Luckily for us this was all just a masterpiece film by Tobe Hooper and Kim Henkel.

This officially licensed deck of playing cards has pulled out all the stops to celebrate this masterpiece of cinema history.

Featuring hand illustrated art from renowned artist Brian Romero-this deck leaves no saw unturned. Everything is completely custom. The embossed matte tuck box is printed on paper made in the UK--luxurious to the touch.

Each deck of cards contains one random "throwback" prismatic sticker!--collect them all--three different designs exist and this is random. No requests please as we do not know which image is housed within!

This is the deck of your dreams...or nightmares. Completely playable and horror themed to the max.

Designed by Brad Fulton

Officially Licensed Product

*Each of these tuck boxes are handmade and may have small imperfections that are part of the printing process. Returns will not be accepted. These are completely unique playing cards that play on the handmade aesthetic of this iconic film.