

Revelio by Magic's Express

REVELIO

takes the classic condensation reveal to a completely new level.

Unlike traditional versions, you are no longer limited to a fixed image or prediction. With REVELIO, you decide exactly what you want to reveal - a word, a name, a number, a drawing, or any prediction you can imagine.

And because you can set it up whenever you need, your prediction doesn't have to live on a special prop. It can be placed directly onto objects around you - even at the performance venue itself.

A mirror in the room.

A glass window in a café.

A surface that was already there before the performance began.

Your secret can stay hidden for a long time, waiting for the perfect moment to be revealed.

REVELIO includes two markers with different formulas, giving you the flexibility to work with different surfaces and situations.

Supported Surfaces
