

Vanish Seal (Red Cap) by Taiwan Ben

What looks like an ordinary plastic bottle becomes a mind-blowing illusion. Turning the impossible into a reality of magic.

At first glance, it is simply an ordinary empty plastic bottle, tightly sealed with its cap.

Normally, putting something inside requires three steps:

1. Open the cap.
2. Drop the object inside.
3. Screw the cap back on.

And taking it out requires the same three steps.

But with Vanish Seal, everything changes.

Right before your audience's eyes, an object such as a battery, Sharpie marker, banknote, cookie, fork, and other small objects impossibly penetrates the sealed cap and drops inside the closed bottle. Then, moments later, the object passes back through the cap and comes cleanly out of the bottle.

Everything happens visually, directly, and impossibly.

After the performance, the bottle and cap can be freely examined by the audience.
